Medium biography

CreArtBox is a New York chamber music and multimedia ensemble founded in 2013 by flutist Guillermo Laporta and pianist Josefina Urraca, with core members Emilie-Anne Gendron, Matthew Cohen, and Julia Yang. Now in its 13th season, it gives its New York Series at The DiMenna Center for Classical Music and tours nationally and internationally.

Recognized by The New Yorker as one of its "art and music top picks," praised by Time Out as "an ensemble devoted to multidisciplinary events," and described by BroadwayWorld as "wholly authentic, visually and aurally compelling," CreArtBox merges classical and contemporary music with original stage design and visual art.

The ensemble has run an open Call for Scores since its first season: eleven works in the 2026/27 season reached the programme through it, and one April evening is given over to it entirely. Its work is supported by the New York State Council on the Arts, the NYC Department of Cultural Affairs, the Amphion Foundation, the Alice M. Ditson Fund, and the Aaron Copland Fund for Music. Each August it co-produces Festival ADAR in rural Asturias, Spain.
